Court Dismisses De Beers Claim

Kenneth E. MacNeill, President and CEO of Shore Gold Inc. (“Shore”) announced that the Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan has reached a decision in favor of Shore, Kensington Resources Ltd., Cameco Corporation and UEM Inc. in the previously-announced action commenced by De Beers Canada Inc. (“De Beers”) (the “Parties”). De Beers had sought a declaration that the previously-announced Voting Agreement relating to the Fort a la Corne Joint Venture ("FALC JV") was void as well as an injunction to restrain the defendants from holding a Management Committee meeting of the FALC JV at which a vote is to be taken, or to restrain the defendants from using the Voting Agreement in connection with a Management Committee vote.

The Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan dismissed all claims made by De Beers, with costs to the defendants, in a written decision released on March 30, 2006.

As per the terms of an earlier agreement between the Parties, this decision now allows the calling of a meeting of the FALC JV Management Committee to be held no sooner than 10 days after this decision to vote on a program and budget for the 2006 operating year.

Shore is a Canadian based corporation engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties. Shares of the Company trade on the TSX Exchange under the trading symbol “SGF”.
